1.1 PURPOSE.

These Bylaws organize and regulate the advisory body (the Board) for Neighborhood Planning Unit B (NPU-B), a planning area defined as such by the City of Atlanta (the City), and apply to all representatives of NPU-B serving on the Board, and to the general constituency of NPU-B. These By-Laws are adopted pursuant to the City Code Part III, Part 6, Chapter 3, Article B, and Sec. 6-3011-3019 (the Code), which governs if a conflict with these Bylaws occurs.

1.2 GOALS.

The Board may make action, policy, or comprehensive plan recommendations to the appropriate City officials and City agencies on all matters affecting the well-being of the residents and businesses and the general livability of the neighborhoods.

1.3 STRUCTURE.

As an advisory board to the City, NPU-B elects to be composed of both Residential and Business Representatives. Those Representative serve on both the general Board as well as on one (1) of three (3) Standing Committees. Both the representative groups and committees report to the Board and are self-organized by Coordinators and Chairs, respectively, as detailed in the By-Laws.

1.4 CONSTITUENTS.

NPU-B is composed of two categories of constituents --, "Residential" and "Business."

(a) Residential Constituents. Every person eighteen years of age or older whose primary residence is within NPU-B is deemed to be a "Residential Constituent" of NPU-B.

1.5 REPRESENTATION.

(a) Residential Representatives. Residential Constituents shall be represented on the Board as follows:

1. The civic association for each "neighborhood" in NPU-B (as identified on the City's official Neighborhood Map adopted in 1993, and modified from time to time) is entitled to appoint one Residential Representative no later than October 1 of each year to serve the following calendar year and shall notify the Chair or Residential Coordinator of their appointment in writing. Such notice should come from the neighborhood association president or an officer (except the appointee).

(b) Business Representatives. There shall be one (1) Business Representative seat available on the Board for each appointed Residential Representative. Article III – Attendance, Resignations, Removals, Board Vacancies

3.1 ATTENDANCE POLICY.

The NPU functions seamlessly because of the continued support and participation of its Representatives. That is why it is important that we define and adhere to an attendance policy:

It shall be the responsibility of the Recorder or impacted Committee Chair to report to the Chair and appropriate Coordinator any Representative who is absent, and fails to have a Delegate attend in their place. Any Representative who is absent, and fails to have a Delegate in attendance, from four (4) regularly scheduled Board meetings and/or four (4) regularly scheduled committee meetings during a calendar year will be deemed to have voluntarily resigned their post effective immediately. These absences include situations where a proxy was established prior to the meeting.

Occasionally situations arise when Representatives need extended absence from their duties. In this situation, Representatives are to work with the appropriate Committee Chair or Chair and neighborhood association, if the Representative is a Residential Representative, to identify a Delegate (see Section 6.10) until a return to duties is possible.

3.2 RESIGNATIONS.

A representative ceasing to meet the qualifications stated in these Bylaws shall resign. Anyone may notify the Chair that a representative fails to qualify, including under the attendance policy, and, if found to be disqualified or incapable of serving will be deemed to have voluntarily resigned their post effective immediately.

If the seat remains vacant for two (2) consecutive Board meetings, the Executive Committee shall take action to fill the vacancy.
- (b) If an appointed Residential seat on the Board becomes vacant, the Residential Coordinator shall contact the affected neighborhood. If the neighborhood fails to appoint a replacement by the next Board meeting, the Coordinator shall solicit nominations from all neighborhoods and the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of the Residential Representatives. No neighborhood shall have more than two Residential Representatives at a given time. If the seat remains vacant for the next Board meeting (following the one where the neighborhood failed to replace), the Executive Committee shall take action to fill the vacancy
 - 1. In replacing a Residential Representative, the neighborhood cannot reappoint the candidate who was removed. However, that individual may be appointed as the Residential Representative for the following calendar year.
